Winthrop Rhythm & Blues Festival

Press Release – For Immediate Release

29th Winthrop R&B Fest has Sunday only tx !!!

Winthrop, WA, July 15-17, 2016: Some have called Allen Stone the toughest soul singer in the Pacific Northwest. Who are we to disagree? We're thrilled that, in a late lineup addition, the Spokane-raised Stone will be closing the Winthrop R&B Festival main stage Sunday, July 17—preceded that day by Too Slim and the Taildraggers, Randy Oxford's All-Star Slam featuring Wee Willie Walker, Randy Hansen and more!

For those who can't make the festival's full weekend, Winthrop is offering a limited number of Sunday-only tickets for $40 in advance ($50 at the gate). For those who can make the full weekend ($90 in advance, $100 at the gate), it's a lineup worth traveling for:

FRIDAY, July 15

Beer Garden show benefitting The Cove Food Bank (21 & older)

Too Slim and the Taildraggers
Grace Love & the True Loves
Rose City Kings
Ben Hunter & Joe Seamons

SATURDAY, July 16

Fabulous Thunderbirds featuring Kim Wilson
Robert Randolph & the Family Band
Dave Alvin & Phil Alvin with the Guilty Ones
Christone "KINGFISH" Ingram
Grace Love & The True Loves
Ben Hunter & Joe Seamons
Rose City Kings

SUNDAY, July 17

Allen Stone
Too Slim and the Taildraggers
Wee Willie Walker w/ The Randy Oxford Band's Allstar Slam
Randy Hansen
Hot Wired Rhythm Band
Nathan James

Tickets can be purchased thru Ticket Tomato <https://www.tickettomato.com/event/3391/29th-annual-winthrop-rhythm-amp-blues-festival/>

Now in its 29th year, the Winthrop Rhythm & Blues Festival is the longest-running, most successful blues event in Washington State, and takes place in one of the region's most spectacular festival settings—the Methow Valley of the North Cascades. A truly world-class event, the festival this past year received the coveted Keeping the Blues Alive award for Best US Festival from the Memphis-based Blues Foundation, which lauded the event for its strong, long-time commitment to its community and for presenting the best of the blues. www.winthropbluesfestival.org
